

the bead method

creating a generous marriage the pre-beading covenant

I, _____, attest that my understanding (Higher Libido Spouse and Holder of the Beads) of and commitment to The Bead Method is essential to our success. Now therefore and hereinafter, I promise to respect the Beads.

I will not squander the Beads by engaging in incessant, compulsive Bead dropping as such an egregious act would surely enrage and exhaust my Beading partner, likely leading to a swift termination of my excellent situation.

Conversely, I will not allow said Beads to collect dust. I understand such flagrant neglect could potentially sadden and/or incite my Beading partner and render our Beading practice totally ineffective. Herein lies my intention.

I, _____, attest that my understanding (Lower Libido Spouse, Catcher of the Beads) of and commitment to The Bead Method is essential to our success. Now therefore and hereinafter, I promise to respect the Beads.

I will acknowledge and redeem each Bead within the allotted redemption window, with the rare exception of sickness, natural disaster or true jerk behavior on the part of my Beading partner. I understand that failing to do so would render our Beading practice ineffective and would surely and justifiably disappoint and severely irritate my Beading partner. Herin lies my intention.
